No. PNDD-12/1053

Dated 3.5.2012

Subject:

Popularity by IEC for making <sup>residence</sup> ID proof mandatory for ultrasonography of pregnant ladies.

Kindly refer to the subject cited above.

The authorities have decided that residence ID proof is mandatory for ultrasonography of pregnant ladies to verify the addresses but there were problems faced by ultrasonologist. Hence, the District Advisory Committee in districts suggested various methods of residence proof to overcome the problems of residence ID proof during the ultrasonography of pregnant ladies. The suggested residence proof approved by Director General, Health Services, Haryana are as follows:-

1. Copy of Ration Card
2. Voter ID Card
3. Water & Electricity Bill
4. Confirmed mobile Number.
5. Bank Pass Book
6. Office ID
7. Army Card
8. Driving License
9. Pan Card
10. Witness by ASHA worker
11. Certificate for labourer from Factory owner/ Bricklin owner or private organization.
12. Passport
13. Certificate from Member panchayat/Sarpanch/Municipal Counselor
14. Any proof of residence.

You are, therefore, requested to popularize it by IEC activities that one of the above residences proof is mandatory for ultrasonography of pregnant lady with Form-F.

~~Encl. As above.~~
